Treasurer's Report:

Membership: 52

Website:

- Adam posted the July results

Autocross:

- July events went well.
- Saturday was decent turnout. Sunday only had 31 entries.
- Chris Patterson, JR's son came and helped with the event and the memorial for JR.
- Chris is going to try to put his Dad's VW Beetle together and autocross it.
- Ripley will email Adam about the season standings and getting them posted on the website.
- Tim Maloney asked if we are having an October Autocross event.
 - Rip replied that we have no venue and no one has volunteered to chair or co-chair the event.
 - In order to have the event, someone needs to volunteer to secure a venue and chair the event so we can schedule it at our Sept. meeting.
 - Don Emerson volunteered to co-chair the event with Tim Maloney if we schedule it.
- Chris looked at the Marathon RV lot in Coburg and it doesn't look feasible.
- Tim Maloney asked about the Coburg lot the Eugene club uses. Charles says he asked them about it and was told NO by the owners, Guaranty RV.
- Tim stated that the RV lot and Lumber Yard in Macminville look like they may be usable. Tim will see about getting contact numbers for them.

Hill Climb:

- Bible Creek:
 - Charles rattled off a bunch of numbers and info too fast to record. ☺
 - 11 Canadians will be Attending.
 - Rip will bring an extra table for the dinner/lunch preparations.
 - Connie will be selling neck coolers and donating a percentage to the WMC Charity fund.
- Maryhill:
 - No new news.

Old Business:

- Paralee got banquet decorations.
- Charles, Dorothy, and Rob went to Seven Brides Brewery , ate dinner and checked them out. Looks like the banquet dinner will be ~$20/head.
- Stickers are still for sale, $3 each or 2 for $5.
- We have 4 hats left for sale.
- Survey results have been tabulated however, Paralee forgot them at home. Will report at the September meeting.
- Charles showed the Bible Creek Hillclimb Tee shirt.
- Ripley and Charles cleaned out and reorganized the club trailer and found the club banner which is on display at the meeting. They also found a number of boxes of autocross chalk, so we should have enough for 2012 season.
- Brooms – We have a number of broken broom handles. Charles donated some of his for the hill so we have enough brooms for all of the corners.
- Paralee found an old copy of the ‘what we do’ document and passed it around. She is working on updating it.

New Business:

- Ripley stated that the Club Trailer needs it’s bearings repacked. A motion was passed to have it done and Barry volunteered to take it in.
- Charles – We have a number of worn out cones and need to think about ordering some new ones.
- Charles – After the last event, we had 3 broken radios from people picking them up using the antenna as a handle. Steve Newby is working on fixing them for us.
