Website:

- Ripley accepted request to return to webmaster duties. States he will get website up-to-date.

Autocross:

- Tim Maloney – Set to go for Saturday Autocross on 10/29.
- Alex Rux volunteered to bring the club trailer to the event.
- James Harris volunteered to bring the timing equipment, set it up, and run timing for the event.
- This event will be NFP. There will be 2 sessions, afternoon and evening.
- There will be a costume contest and Don and Tim will award prizes.
- Tim Maloney – Valley RV in Macminville. Tim passed around a map of the lot. They want $1000 to use their site for an event, but at least they're talking to us. We should go on-site and walk around and check out the surface to see if we want to pursue this further.
- Barry stated that the neighbors at the Fairgrounds have been complaining about noise. Something to keep in mind... We can't take for granted that we will be able to keep this site.
- Barry also stated that we need new cones.
- Connie volunteered to take an inventory of our cones at the 10/29 event and report back at the November meeting.

Hill Climb:

- Bible Creek: Ripley stated that Charles is on vacation and will report at the next meeting.
 - Ripley - According to Charles, we made ~$1700 on the Bible Creek Hillclimb
- Maryhill:
 - Ripley - According to Charles, we made ~600 after expenses and splitting the profits with the Astoria club on Maryhill, however Chris states we made more than that. A full report from Charles will come at the November meeting.
 - Connie stated that one person was confused and thought there was supposed to be food provided at the hill.
 - It was suggested that Charles do a survey of the Maryhill attendees.

New Business:

- Online Payments – Ripley brought some information about online payments using Pukka Software (MotorsportReg.com) which Astoria and SCCA use for online event registration and payment.

- It was suggested to check into the product by AXWARE that interfaces with our timing software.
- Banquet
 - Ripley passed out the invitation that he is ready to mail with the menu that will be offered for the buffet.
 - Connie and Paralee will show up at 5:30 to set up decorations.
 - Banquet starts at 6pm.
- Trophies
 - Paralee suggested either a trophy or a light up crystal with a picture inside.
 - Charles suggested (via proxy) a windbreaker
